Days 2022 INTERNATIONAL TRADE FAIR IN AGRICULTURE,
TECHNOLOGIES, FOOD & PROCESSING

LUSHNJE, MAY 19-21

GENERAL INFORMATION:

The International Trade Fair in Agriculture, Technologies, Food & Processing, "Agriculture Days" will take place in Albania on May 12-14, 2022 in the city of Lushnje. The placement of the exhibition is strategically chosen taking into consideration that Lushnje is known as the capital of agricultural exports, featuring several markets for the collection of agricultural products and linked with a variety of importers not only from the countries of the region and the EU but also expanding the map of "Made in Albania" products to the Nordic countries.

Agriculture Days 2022 will offer important opportunities for the businesses and professionals in agriculture, covering the whole Balkan market. The main purpose of the exhibition is to create a communication platform for businesses to encourage new partnerships and collaborations in the agriculture sector.

Agriculture is the most important economic sector in Albania with a contribution in country's GDP of 20%. 44% of the population work in jobs that are related to agriculture and there are approximately 350,000 agricultural enterprises in Albania. The government is currently undertaking reforms that address challenges in the economic, as well in the governmental sector. IPARD Program - a total of €94 million of funding available for investments in agriculture and rural development - will contribute to improve living conditions in rural areas as well as to economic development in the sector.
